

I STRONGLY oppose relaxing the rules that limit broadcast ownership. I have seen only negative results from this practice. Competition is gone, and all of the broadcasts are unbelievably similar. Allowing owners to monopolize the market place is a frightening trend that greatly limits free speech. I am beginning to think that is the goal of the current administration and the FCC.